New Accounts

There are 3 different methods to establish credit for your first-time sale with Wolfgang Candy:

1. Complete and return the new account credit application and submit to Wolfgang Candy prior to the start of your sale. Upon credit approval, your account may be invoiced and paid according to Wolfgang's normal terms.
2. C.O.D. If your organization intends to pick up its order, you may choose to pay for it at time of pick-up.
3. If neither of the above options are convenient, you may choose to make payment in advance of delivery. You would need to submit a check, money order or credit card for payment. After your check clears the bank, your order will be shipped. In this case, allow 4 weeks to process your order.

Wolfgang Candy's Position on Sales Tax & School Fundraising

Wolfgang Candy provides products for fundraising sales for school, religious organizations, non-profit groups and others. These products in turn are sold to the general public to help them raise funds for their specific school or organization.

Each organization should know if they are tax-exempt or are required to collect and pay sales taxes to the state in which it is located. We are NOT ALLOWED, to collect sales tax monies nor are we allowed to submit for remittance to your taxing authority for you.

If you are in doubt of your tax status, Wolfgang Candy recommends you contact a tax and/or legal professional for help.

Year-Round On-line Fundraising Profit

Your organization's family, friends and other VIP's across the country can participate in your Wolfgang Candy sale. By logging on to www.wolfgangcandy.com, they can order candy using your organization's account number. Your organization will receive 50% profit for one year on retail priced sales, excluding shipping costs. (Normal UPS/USPS rates apply.)

You may send a personalized message to as many contacts as you wish. Simply go to <http://www.wolfgangcandy.com> or call Customer Service for further instructions.

All profit checks for on-line sales are issued four times per year: January, April, July and October
